

Meet the Official (non-native) Tree of San Diego

Jacaranda Mimosifolia
(jack-uh-RAN-duh
mih-moe-sih-FLOE-ee-uh)

- Order: Lamiales
- Family: bignoniaceae (big-no-ni-a-CEE-aye)
- Genrea: 100
- Species: 800+
- Common traits: showy flowers, opposite or whorled leaves, pinnately compound leaves, bisexual or zygomorphic flowers

- Origins: Argentina, Bolivia, Paraguay, Uruguay
- Deciduous to semi-evergreen
- Light grey bark
- 40' ft x 45' ft

- Flower from May - September
- Trumpet shaped flowers
- Bipinnately compound leaves

- antibacterial qualities of the stem bark
- transformative, personality and academics

Bankers Hill

HILLQUEST

