

Onargraceae

On-uh-GRAY-see-ee

Evening Primrose Family

650-720 Species

Showy Flowers

4 sepals & petals

Bisexual

Mostly perennials

Dicot, taproot

Low Maintenance

Lance or spear shaped leaves

Whorled, opposite or alternate

Deciduous, Evergreen

Flowers open in early evening

Genus: Calylophus

(Kal-ee-LOW-fus)

Species: Calylophus hartwegii

Sundrops or Western Primrose

Native to SW USA

Soft yellow cup flowers

Mar-Nov bloom

Low grow perennial

Dicot

Deciduous

Low water use

Dry, fast draining soil

Part shade to full sun

Attracts bees, birds, & butterflies

Genus: Gaura

(gau-rah)

Species: gaura belleza white

Bee Blossoms or Whirling Butterflies

Wildflower with MANY hybrids

Native to Louisiana & Texas

White to pink/red flowers

Petals directed upward

Rhizomes

Long fleshy taproot

Full sun to part shade

Drought tolerant

Disease resistant

Tough to remove!

Genus: Fuchsia

110 species

Most native to S. Amer.

Showy decorative

Fruit of all fuchsia edible

